LOCAL MATTERS

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:47 a. m. and sets 7:19 p. m. High water at 10:00 a. m. and 11:25 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair; cooler tonight; Tuesday fair; light to fresh west to northwest winds.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.—Mrs. Jennie B. Allen, wife of J. Herbert Allen, died in Washington on Saturday night last. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gannell, of Fairfax county. She was 28 years old.

Adeline Brooks, colored, dropped dead Saturday evening while walking along the road in West End, near the toll gate. She was 65 years of age. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death.

The funeral of the late Rev. Granville R. Moon, who died at the home of his father, Prof. Moon, on Seminary Hill, Saturday morning, took place at 12 o'clock noon today from the chapel at the Episcopal Theological Seminary. The interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Robb White, Jr., C. H. Goss, S. Z. Moore, C. S. Mullikin, C. G. Chamberlayne, G. F. Rogers, H. B. Lee, Jr., P. A. Kennedy, H. H. Palmer, T. R. Faulkner, C. H. Meyer and A. R. Decker. The services were conducted by Rev. Drs. Crawford and Wallis and Rev. Mr. Masie.

The funeral of the late George R. Smith, who died last Thursday night, took place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 319 Queen street. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church. The remains were placed in the vault in the Methodist Protestant Cemetery.

DECORATION EXERCISES.—As anticipated the decoration exercises yesterday of Junior Order of American Mechanics passed off in a very creditable and satisfactory manner. After strewing the graves of the deceased members of the order with flowers, the assembly gathered under the large trees in the Methodist Protestant Cemetery where the following order of service was carried out: Prayer, Rev. Dr. Brooke; singing, "Jesus Lover of My Soul"; address on behalf of the order, L. D. Lytle; memorial address, Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of Trinity Church; singing, "Nearer My God to Thee"; closing address on behalf of the order, G. N. Cradick; singing, "My Country 'Tis of Thee"; prayer and benediction by Rev. Dr. Hunt. The meeting was presided over by State Councilman Jas. R. Mansfield. These exercises were held in remembrance of the following deceased members of the Alexandria and Belle Haven Councils: Robert Williams, J. M. Luckett, Clarence W. Taylor, Henry E. Bailey, Richard Owens, G. T. Price, James McCracken, Charles Knoxville, Elmer Skidmore, Frank P. Cayton, Wm. W. Warder, John H. Bruce, A. C. Gorman, J. W. Bachtel, J. W. Hefley, John Craven, Orlando Miller, T. H. Payne, William Wilkins, William H. Nalls, E. L. McDonald, John E. Jennings, J. O. Power, N. D. Connor, E. D. Soper, W. S. Robey, J. H. Cook, Joe Hart, A. S. Laycock, Chas. H. Kersey, C. E. Watkins, and Wm. H. Ferguson.

SHOT BY SHERIFF.—Thomas Cromey, colored, aged twenty-two, living near Bailey's Crossroads, Fairfax county, was taken to the Georgetown Hospital, Saturday morning, after being shot by Sheriff H. T. Palmer, of Alexandria county, Cromey was arrested about 9 o'clock Saturday night for fighting with a colored man named Johnson near Bailey's Crossroads. By Sheriff Palmer, who turned his man over to his son, the deputy sheriff, to be taken to the county jail at Fort Myer Heights. Shortly before the deputy sheriff and his prisoner arrived at the jail, Cromey suddenly jumped from the wagon and started to run. The deputy sheriff immediately drew his revolver and commanded the fleeing man to halt, and as he failed to slacken his pace, the sheriff opened fire upon him, firing five shots, two of which took effect. One of the bullets entered the right side of the prisoner's back, and the other shot taking effect in the middle of his back. An operation was performed upon Cromey at the hospital immediately after his arrival, and the surgeons succeeded in extracting one of the bullets. His condition is not critical.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Simpson called the Police Court to order at half-past eight o'clock this morning instead of nine, as heretofore, and consequently no reporters and but few spectators had an opportunity of witnessing the proceedings. The docket, however, was of no public interest.

Horace Teyman and Ida Winkfield, both colored, had been arrested by Officer Allen for disorderly conduct. The former was dismissed and the latter fined $5 and in default of payment will be sent to the workhouse.

Bud Thomas, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Josephine Lee, colored, charged with assaulting and beating Rebecca Quill, also colored, was fined $5. She will be sent to the workhouse in default of payment of the assessment.

A small white girl, charged with disorderly conduct toward some children of her neighborhood, was dismissed.

A few strangers still apply for lodging at the station house. Two were entertained Saturday night and two last night.

REFRESHING RAIN.—About 5 o'clock yesterday evening heavy black clouds formed in the northwestern heavens and later a furious rain storm followed, accompanied by some hail, thunder and lightning. The clouds were very heavy and during the time the storm was most fierce the heavens were considerably darkened. The lightning for a time was almost incessant. The electric fluid struck poles and wires in several sections of the city, but the damage was slight. One of the telephones in the station house was temporarily deranged by lightning. At New Alexandria one of the generators at the electric power house was burned out. The damage there may amount to several hundred dollars. The temperature became much lower after the storm.

PERSONAL.—Miss Virginia Corse is the guest of Mrs. Virginia Hall and Miss Jane Fisher, in Richmond.

Mrs. J. B. Gannon who has been visiting Mrs. Cowbig, in Charlottesville, has returned to her home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Emerson have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Prudence, to Mr. Lawrence Waring Woody, of Richmond. The ceremony will take place in the Methodist Protestant Church Thursday evening, June 5, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Jeff. Althouson has returned home from Chattanooga, Tenn., where he has been on business for the Southern Railway Co., for the past two months.

Lieutenant Chas. F. Nash, U. S. revenue cutter service, arrived in the city yesterday from Southampton, N. C.

Miss Elsie Norris, of Leesburg, is the guest of Miss Ethel King, on north Payne street.

Mr. John H. Allen is ill at his home on south Fairfax street.

Miss Virginia Brockett, formerly of this city but now of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. D. R. Windsor, on Cameron street.

Among the invited guests at the Rochambeau statue unveiling in Washington, on Saturday were Miss Ficklin and her sister, Miss Mary Ficklin, of this city.

Ex-Councilman Louis Kraft, who has been in Germany for two years, has returned to Alexandria.

Miss Mary Wheat, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Alice J. Campbell, 723 King street.

Rev. R. K. Masie, of the Theological Seminary, occupied the pulpit at Christ Church yesterday in the absence of Rev. Berryman Green, who is visiting his brother in lower Virginia.

Mr. Robert Porter and family have gone from Washington to Manassas to spend the summer at their country home there.

EXCITEMENT AMONG EXCURSIONISTS.—A street preacher was investigating against Sunday excursions yesterday afternoon as a stowaway came into the Alexandria. The preacher did not mind words in his protest against Sunday reveling and made some dismal forecasts concerning the settling of the final accounts of the participants in such procedures or what might happen in the way of sudden judgment. The crowd jeered and invited the itinerant to become one of the party. An hour or two later the heavy storm which passed over Alexandria broke over the grounds. The lightning flashed, the thunder was appalling, trees were swayed almost to prostration by the wind, the rain came in blinding sheets accompanied by hail and the demolition of the pavilion seemed imminent. Many thought the words of the preacher were about to be fulfilled and sat with blanched faces as the celestial batteries, heavily charged as they were, kept the heavens aglow. Men and women began to fall over in fainting fits, and it is said more of the masculine gender were victims than those of the other sex. There was not so much hilarity as the excursionists returned to their homes.

EVANGELISTS IN A STORM.—Three members of Alexandria churches who go on missionary tours in the rural districts on Sunday, had a thrilling experience when on Hunting creek bridge yesterday evening on their way home. They were in a buggy and while hurrying along were struck by the storm in all its fury. The high wind turned both horse and buggy around and there was a likelihood of team and occupants being hurled into the seething waters of the creek. The party, however, managed to get the horse around and barring being drenched by the rain and pelted by the hail reached home without injury. Several years ago two lay preachers of this city started on a tour in Fairfax county and had proceeded a short distance southwest of Alexandria when they were overtaken by a furious thunder storm. They sought shelter in the woods when a large tree was uprooted and the Alexandrians had a narrow escape from being crushed to death.

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES.—All preparations for Memorial Day services have been made by R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans, and the weather being propitious, the exercises and interesting occasion is anticipated. As is the usual annual custom, a committee of Lee Camp visited the cemetery this morning and decorated the graves of deceased members with flowers. Toward the close of the day the exercises proper will be held at the monument, at the intersection of Prince and Washington streets. The oration of the day will be delivered by Representative Rice A. Pierce, of Tennessee. The monument was decorated with flowers for the occasion, and a grandstand was erected near by. To the decorations at the monument and at the mound in Christ Church Cemetery were in charge of the women's auxiliary to the Lee Camp, and were assisted by the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The programme and line of march have heretofore been published in the Gazette.

THE MISSION TO CATHOLICS.—The Paulist mission to the Catholics of Alexandria closed last night, and ended with significant solemnity, a season which has touched every heart. Mainly carried on by Father Sullivan, he has been effectively assisted by Fathers Gillis and Burke of his own order and by the rector and Father Ahern of Alexandria. The urgent work of the missionaries, as expressed constantly by their leader, was to induce all to assist faithfully at the sacrifice of the Mass, to secure to all a happy and pure home life and to impress upon the men, and especially on the young people, a hatred of intoxicating drink. Father Sullivan urged that with the help of God the young should "cure it from their inmost hearts." The discourse at 5 o'clock p. m., on Sunday, to men only was devoted exclusively to warnings against the use of strong drink and exhortation to abandon it forever.

TO ERECT A PAINT SHOP.—The Southern Railway Company today broke ground for a new paint shop at the northwest corner of Wilkes and Alfred streets. The shop will be 50x100 feet, and will be modern in every particular. The ground to be used was half a century ago part of the old Kizer land yard.

ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY.—The following books have been added to the Alexandria Library: The Battle Ground, Ellen Glasgow; Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall, Major; Marriage Settlement, Modeste Mignon, J. J. Juselius; Lost Illusions, Distinguished; The Country Doctor, The Country Parson, The Pious Doctor, Constance Betty, Constance Betty, The Conqueror, Albert; The Leopard's Spots, Thos. Dixon, Jr.; The Hand of Bakerville, G. Doyle.

Marshall Jones, of this city, will be given at the Opera House June 2, for the benefit of the Industrial school to be established here by Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett. The play will be given under the auspices of Mrs. Barrett and Mrs. Jones.

CHILDREN'S DAY.—Children's Day exercises yesterday morning in the Second Presbyterian Church were very interesting in every feature. Mr. George W. Jamieson delivered an address to the children which was listened to with close attention by the large congregation present.

COURT COURTESY.—The County Court transacted no business today, giving way to the Circuit Court.

In the Circuit Court the docket was called and cases set. The only business of general interest was the case of Phillips vs. Hancock, a suit to get possession of the W. A. & F. C. R. E. The case was in progress when this report closed.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
The various offices in the City Hall building are being connected by electric bells.
